FIFTEEN CENTS

4 percent tax hike 'not bad'

by LEE ANN MACKULIN

With the local tax rate increasing approximately four percent for village residents, "the reaction hasn't been too bad," according to Assessor Bud Holtz.

The increase was due to a "big increase in the library levy and several others," said Holtz.

Although the tax levy went up the assessment went down, he said.

"All in all it wasn't bad at all. This is the first time that all of the bills came out on time due to the cooperation of everyone."

"Some of them (the residents) took a healthy jump and they came in to have it explained to them," said Holtz.

The increases were "comparable all the way through" in this area, he said.

The Quadrennial, due in 1986, is currently being worked on, according to Holtz. This involves a complete reassessment of each piece of property in the Township. It helps discover deletions the township is not aware of and buildings put up without permits, said Holtz.

The process is done every four years, however, "if I find an overassessment or an underassessment I can change it at any time," said Holtz.

"If there are any questions of assessments I can try to answer them," said Holtz.

Rotarians to hold stock car race

by LEE ANN MACKULIN

It's time again for those crazy Antioch Rotarians to challenge those who dare to a stock car race at the Wilmo Speedway June 23, 1985.

The Third Annual Antioch Scholarship Family Fundraiser will begin at 1 p.m. with races starting at 2. A rain date has been set for June 30.

A few races to watch for are: the Rotary Club presidents against area financial institutions, powder puff race, Lions Club against the Rotary Club and many more.

Anyone interested in a challenge race may call the State Bank of Antioch at 395-2700 to submit their entry.

Past races have seen such surprises as racing blindfolded, racing in golfcarts, garden tractors, garbage trucks and gravel trucks.

The money raised will be used for scholarships for Antioch Community High School Students. Tickets are available at the State Bank of Antioch, First National Bank and any Rotarian.

Looking on are (From right) Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz, Police Chief Chuck Miller, Antioch Township Supervisor Jim Fields, Ray Scarpelli, President of the State Bank of Antioch Randy Miles and Chairman of the show Ray Scarpelli Jr. The three-day show was held in the Municipal Parking Lot and involved many area dealers displaying their finest lines.—Photo by Lee Ann Mackulin.

ACHS plays part in defense film

by LEE ANN MACKULIN

The students at Antioch Community High School are helping more than 14,000 high schools across the country to determine their vocational strengths and weaknesses.

Thirty ACHS students participated in the making of a 20-minute video entitled 'It's Your Future' which is designed to show how testing with the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB) can help them with their careers. The test is offered free to schools by the Dept. of Defense.

"We had all of the drama students who were interested meet with them and interview," said ACHS Principal Arthur Blecke.

Antioch was chosen for the making of the film because "of its gifted drama program and the facilities that were readily accessible to our production staff," said Lt. Commander Daryce Moore (US Navy).

"Antioch High School has been extremely cooperative in making things go well," said Moore.

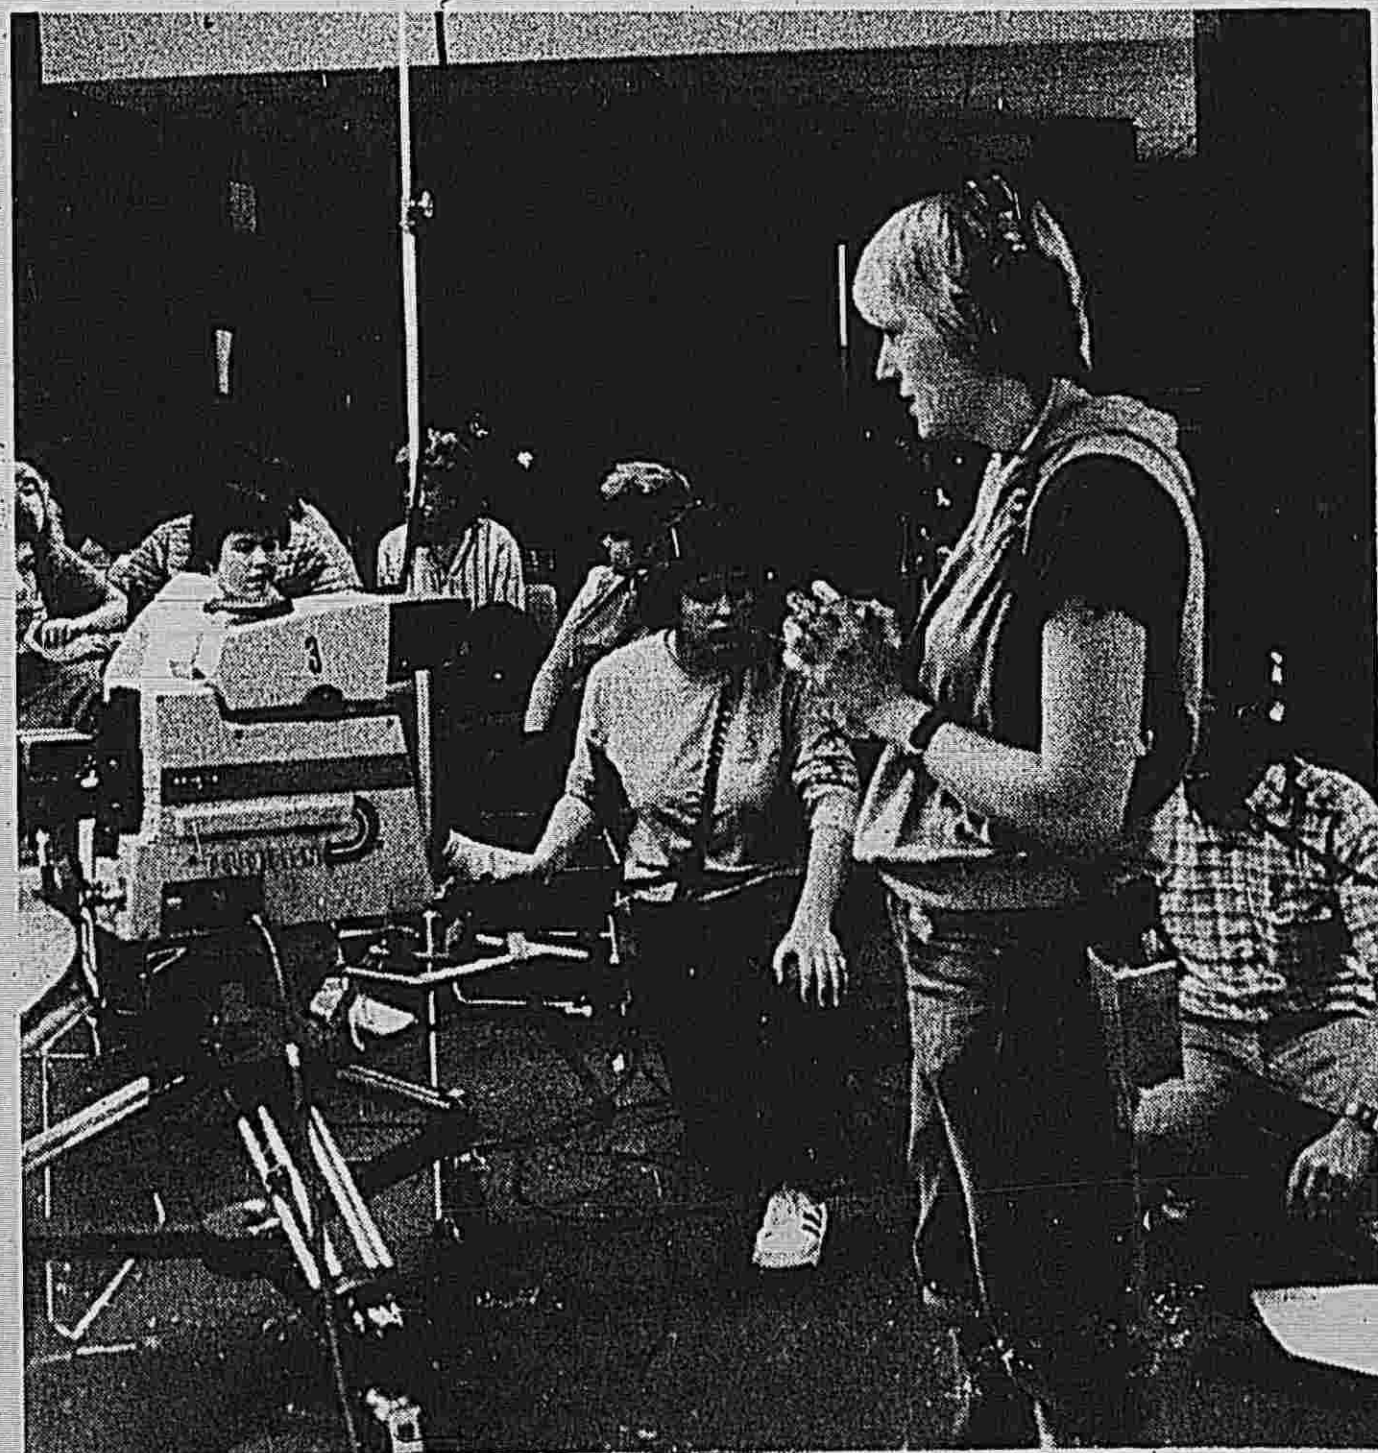

"Mr. Blecke has gone out of his way to meet our needs," she added.

"We gave the kids instructions and they have kept quiet (during the shooting), even with the 400 students in the lunch room (where the film was being shot). They responded very well," said Blecke.

The test, run through the Dept. of Defense Testing Program, covers civilian and military career counseling. The exam is taken by over one million students each year. The film shows how the students should put to use the results of the test.

The director of the film is Gary Bishop of Fort Knox Training and Audiovisual Support Center; producer is Lt. Commander Moore and technical information is provided by a large 40-foot van from the Fort Knox Training and Audio Visual Support Center.

The crew finished shooting at ACHS May 24. From there they go to Headquarters at North Chicago, Ft. Sheridan, Great Lakes and Glenview.

RV Boat Auto Show proves successful

Blue skies, friendly faces and the area's finest outdoor vehicles made up the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry's First Annual RV Boat and Auto Show May 23-25.

Many turned out for the ribbon-cutting ceremony Thursday which took place on the stage designed by the chamber's advertising wiz Vince Giorgi. Various residents and friends helped with the construction.

Mayor Raymond Toft had the honor of cutting the ribbon with other Antioch officials, such as Township Supervisor Jim Fields, looking on.

The Bank of Waukegan, Antioch Branch, First National Bank of Antioch and the State Bank of Antioch were all on hand, providing financial information for those serious showgoers.

Show Chairman Ray Scarpelli Jr. and co-chairman Larry Hanson can be commended for a successful 'first' outdoor show.

Ring to create 'efficient dept.'

by JOHN STEINKE

On May 6, 27-year-old Mark Ring was inaugurated as Antioch Twp. Highway Commissioner. Ring pulled off an unprecedented upset in the April 2 election. He unseated appointed incumbent Dave Heath in a three-way contest. Ring polled 1,565 votes to Heath's 1,147. Earl Quirk received only 214 ballots. The Ring family achieved a surprising victory over Twp. Supervisor Jim Fields' organization that has dominated Antioch politics for years.

In the election, Mark Ring carried 10 out of 14 precincts. Ring captured five out of eight precincts in the Village of Antioch, defeating Heath by 78 votes. Here was the Antioch vote: Ring, 859 (49.3 percent); Heath, 781 (44.8 percent) and Quirk, 103 (5.9 percent).

The highway commissioner has the responsibility for snow removal and road maintenance in the unincorporated areas of the township. Ring easily won these precincts. He carried this region by almost a 2-to-1 margin. The youthful candidate's best precincts were eight and nine at Grass Lake School, where he garnered 68.9 percent and 68.1 percent of the vote respectively.

Ring captured five of six precincts: Heath defeated Ring by only two votes in Precinct 11 (Emmons School). Mark Ring defeated Heath by 340 votes in the unincorporated areas. The vote total was: Ring, 706 (59.7 percent); Heath, 366 (30.9 percent) and Quirk, 111 (9.4 percent).

Mark Ring had worked for the township road department for eight years before his election. His late father, Blaine, had served as highway commissioner for 16 years. Following Blaine Ring's death, the Fields administration appointed township trustee David Heath as road commissioner in 1981 to fill out the unexpired term.

In an exclusive interview with Lakeland Newspapers, Highway Commissioner Mark Ring reported that his department is responsible for the maintenance of 72 miles of roads in the unincorporated sections of the township. With Heath's departure and Ring's elevation to the highway commissionership, the department has been reduced from six to five members. Ring asserted, "At the present time, I do not want to add another man as long as our present work force can fulfill our responsibilities in a competent fashion. In addition, it has provided a financial saving for the taxpayers. We have an obligation to balance road maintenance with fiscal responsibility. Our department recognizes that our residents pay the bills and the salaries for effective highway services."

Commissioner Ring also asserted that there has been excellent cooperation between the Village of Fox Lake and the Antioch Twp. Highway Dept. It is customary for these two governmental units to exchange road equipment to solve their highway problems. Ring said that the township had the use of the street sweeper from Fox Lake "to sweep the Antioch Twp. roads clean of excessive sand that accumulated during the winter months. This situation presented a potential hazard to drivers utilizing the township roads."

Honor athletes

The Antioch Lions Club is sponsoring the athletic banquet on Wednesday, May 29. This will be the 44th year the Lions have sponsored such an occasion. The banquet is to honor the senior boy and girl athletes, as well as the senior cheerleaders, pom-pom, color guard, senior band members, most valuable athletes and individual state qualifiers.

The senior athletes and special invited groups and their coaches and sponsors will be guests of the club. Each teen guest is encouraged to bring a father, a mother or an adult guest. The club would like to limit the adult guest to one since there is limited seating in the cafeteria. Tickets are sold at the door only at a cost of $6.

The club and guests will listen to Rick Bowen, a varsity assistant basketball coach at the University of Wisconsin under Steve Yoder. Bowen has a rich background in high school coaching in Indiana and college coaching at Ball State University and Wisconsin.

He earned a bronze star during Vietnam service. Another highlight will be a visit of John Ploss from the great Antioch Elite 8 Team of 1981.

Diabetes Program

A program on diabetes will be held at Memorial Hospital, Burlington on Monday, June 10, at 7 p.m. It is the third in a series of community education programs that Memorial Hospital will be offering. To present senior program Director Janet S. Otwell of the Illinois Department on Aging announced that "Don't Get Hooked," a program providing tips on how senior citizens can avoid being victimized by fraud and other con games, will be presented at 13 Illinois senior centers during the next three months.

The presentations, part of a statewide initiative to combat fraudulent crimes against seniors, are being coordinated by the Department on Aging, along with the Illinois Association of Senior Centers, American Association of Retired Persons, Illinois Crime Prevention Officers Association and Illinois Department of Law Enforcement.

"Older persons are often the victims of fraudulent schemes that range from unnecessary home improvement offers to non-existent investment opportunities," said Otwell. "And it's not unusual for a talented con artist to exploit the victim's assets, including savings accounts, life insurance benefits, pensions or annuities, and home equity."

"In recognition of this problem, the Department on Aging is coordinating an initiative to provide seniors with information about how to recognize common frauds and swindles and what to do to avoid them. The program that will be presented at various senior centers during the next three months is most appropriately entitled 'Don't Get Hooked,' Otwell said.

The program will be held in each of the Department on Aging's 13 planning and service areas in the state and will be presented by local police officers and regional public information officers of the Department of Law Enforcement.

Seniors attending the "Don't Get Hooked" programs will have an opportunity to view a twenty minute slide program developed by the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) and to receive various AARP handout materials.

The first program is scheduled for May 20 at the Berwyn Cicero Senior Center in Cicero. Schedules for the 12 other programs will be determined by the Illinois Association of Senior Centers in the near future.

"Once the 13 programs have been completed, which will be sometime in July, we will be looking at the feasibility of making this and other crime related programs available to senior centers and community groups throughout the state," Otwell said.

"The Department on Aging is very pleased that the Association of Illinois Senior Centers, AARP, Crime Prevention Officers Association and the Department of Law Enforcement have joined with us in this worthwhile effort."

Knowledge of CPR 'life saving'

Don Gofron, of Antioch, was able to save the life of Les Hayden of Norridge, through his knowledge of cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and quick thinking, May 12.

Gofron, a crewleader at Commonwealth Edison's Crystal Lake Division, earned his CPR certification through a work safety program.

Paramedic Mary Davis and doctors at Northern Illinois Medical Center agreed that Hayden would not have lived if CPR had not been administered. Doctors concluded that Hayden had been clinically dead before Gofron assisted by Paul Gofron of Lake Villa and Kelly Martin of McHenry, revived him.

CPR is a life-saving tool which should be had by everyone. The College of Lake County offers a four-week Red Cross CPR class beginning July 10 for $10. Many local emergency services such as fire and rescue squads offer CPR classes.

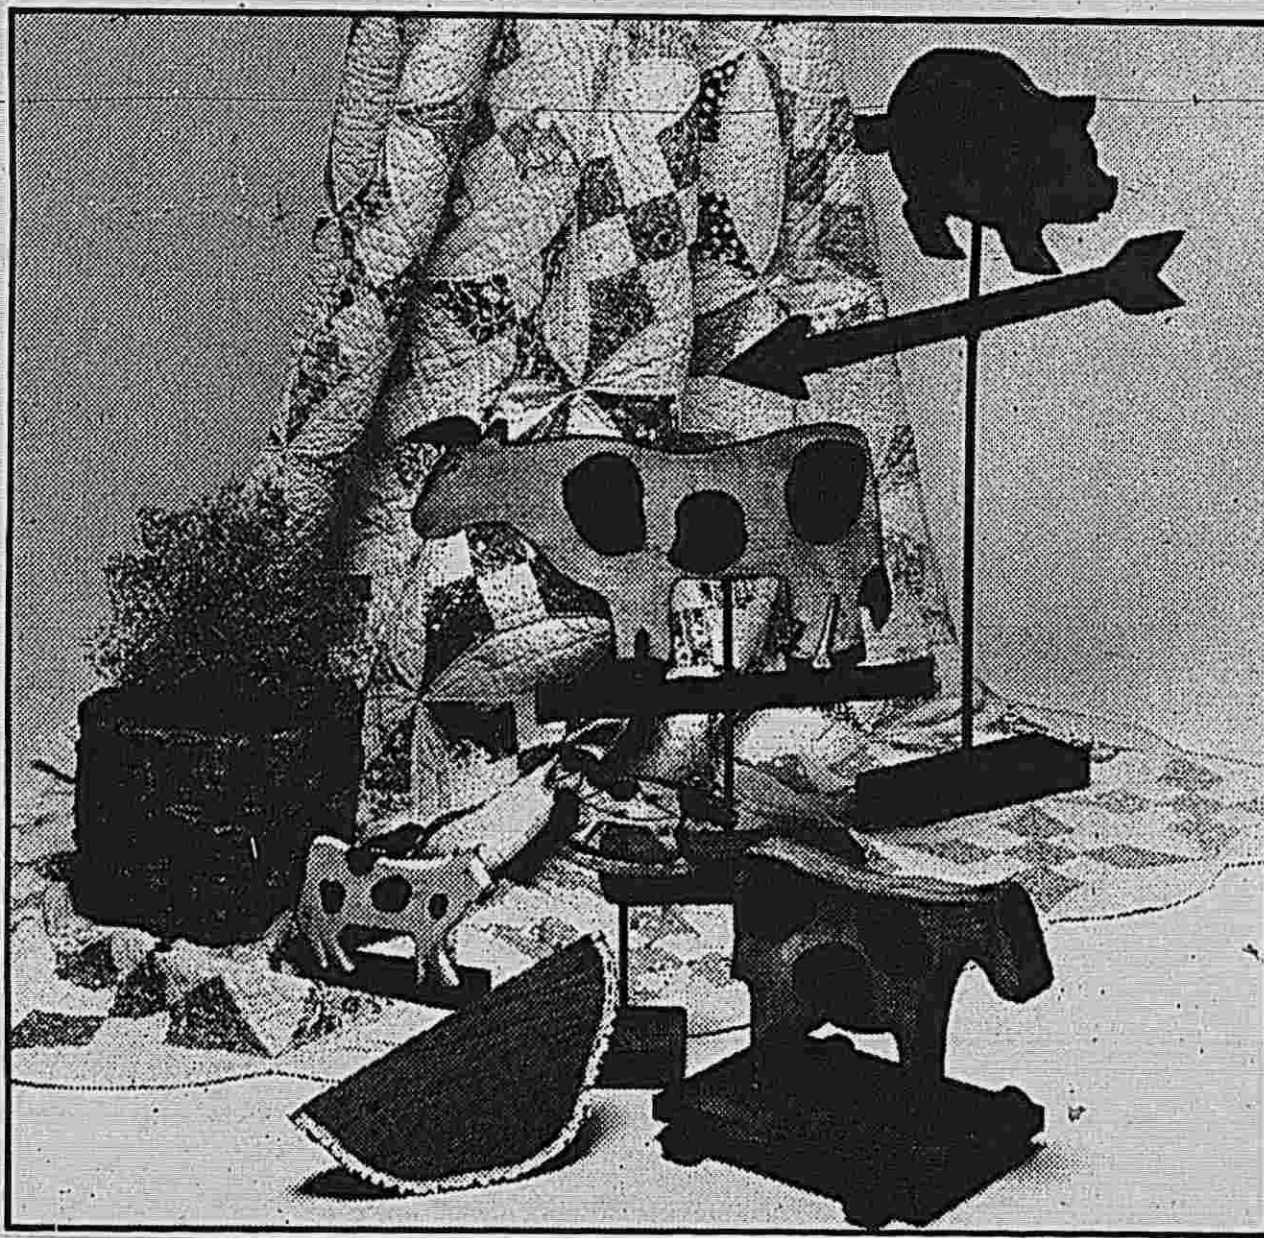

For more information call CLC at 223-8800.

WHEN YOU HURT YOU NEED CARE NOW

You don't want or need to wait for an appointment

WE ARE HERE WHEN YOU NEED US - AS WE HAVE BEEN FOR THE PAST 7 YEARS

A recent article published in the newspaper discussed Condell Memorial Hospital's purchase of the Westlake Medical Center Building. The article has caused many of our patients to wonder if we are still here and continuing to provide medical care to the Round Lake area.

We would like to share our response with you.

I read with great interest your recent article on the purchase of the Westlake Medical Center in Round Lake by Condell Memorial Hospital. We were gratified to see appropriate attention given to this major investment by the hospital in the Round Lake community. We welcome the hospital as our newest landlord and expect that its increased involvement in the community will benefit all of our citizens.

While highlighting the "takeover" of the Westlake center by Condell, the article raised a number of questions in the minds of our patients. The confusion stems, we believe for the suggestion implicit in your article that the medical and dental care at the Westlake Building from now on will be provided directly by Condell Hospital or physicians and dentists directly affiliated with the hospital. This is not the case. The same doctors and dentists who have served the people of Round Lake in the past remain as tenants and will continue to serve their patients. We expect, of course, that the hospital will recruit additional physicians so that a broader range of health care service will be available on site.

We have been the major tenant in the Westlake building since its opening in July, 1980. Before that, we provided medical care to citizens of Round Lake at the original Westlake Family Healthcare Center in Ingleside. Our commitment to the area dates back to 1978.

During those seven years, we have honored the wishes of our patients concerning referral for specialist or hospital care. That will continue to be the case. Our patients will continue to be hospitalized at the institution of their choice.

Condell has chosen to change the name of the center. In anticipation of this change - and to reduce the likelihood of confusion - we recently changed the name of our practice from "Westlake Family Healthcare Center" to "Doctors on Duty, Ltd." From its inception in 1978, this practice has been an affiliate of Emergency Physicians Group, Ltd., which is the largest provider of primary medical care in Lake County.

In summary, we are pleased that Condell Memorial Hospital has made such a substantial commitment to the people of Round Lake, and we anticipate a positive relationship with the hospital as our landlord and as the provider of newly available community health care services. Our independent practice of ambulatory medicine will continue under the name, Doctors on Duty (formerly Westlake Family Healthcare Center) and we will continue to refer our patients to the specialists and hospitals of their choice for more serious medical and surgical problems.

Sincerely,

Terrence S. Carden, Jr., M.D., F.A.C.E.P.
President
